

I-10 open eastbound from Prairieville to the Mississippi state line

BATON ROUGE – The Department of Transportation and Development (DOTD) has announced that Interstate 10 is now open eastbound from Prairieville to the Mississippi state line. Crews have worked through the entire winter event to de-ice the bridges and roadways. The section of I-10 has been deemed passable.

The westbound lanes remain closed from near I-510 New Orleans to I-49 in Lafayette.

Other major Interstate closures are:

- I-49 from MLK Blvd. to Mira Myrtis Road in Caddo Parish
- I-12 from Baton Rouge to near Covington
- I-110 in Baton Rouge
- I-55 from LaPlace to Ponchatoula
- I-610 in New Orleans
- I-310 between Destrehan and Kenner

To keep up with the latest road closures and openings, routinely check www.511la.org. You can download the Louisiana 511 app to your smartphone, as well as like DOTD on Facebook and follow us on Twitter.